

Announcing the first annual
RI Council of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Art Contest!

Judge: Gloria Crist, Director, The CORE Organization

COVID-19 has brought conversations about mental health and well-being to the forefront. Through this art contest, we hope to give kids a voice to talk openly about mental health and fight the stigma of mental illness

Theme: What does mental health and well-being mean to you?

Open to Rhode Island youth aged 6-18

Please submit visual art including photography, drawing, painting via attached jpeg, png, or pdf

First prize: $150

Second prize: $75

Third prize: $50

Honorable mention (4): $25

Winners' artwork will be featured on the RI Council of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry website (<https://riccap.net>)
